

Lioness: A Story About Women In Combat

Women In Defense Mid-Atlantic chapter presents a screening of Lioness, a documentary about women in combat.

How did a group of female support soldiers—mechanics, supply clerks and engineers—end up fighting alongside the Marines in some of the bloodiest counterinsurgency battles of the Iraq war? Find out in Lioness, a film about female combat veterans. Women In Defense Mid-Atlantic chapter invites you and your family to attend a screening of this incredible documentary that tells the story of the first women in history to be sent into direct ground combat. The screening will take place at Harford Community College's Chesapeake Center Dining Rooms. Refreshments will be offered for sale. A $5 donation requested to offset the cost of screening the documentary.

A thoughtful evening...

When: Thursday, March 11, 2010

- 5:30 p.m.: Networking and refreshments
- 6:00 p.m.: Screening of Lioness
- 7:30 p.m.: Discussion

Where: Harford Community College Chesapeake Center Dining Rooms (see map)
Please RSVP to rsvpWID@gmail.com by March 5. Bring your friends and family. The film is not rated, but best for children 13 and above.

For more information about the film, go to <http://www.lionessthefilm.com/> or contact Alena Calm at 410-436-0178 or Joan Michel at 410-652-4456.

